With the demands of modern practice, it's easy to lose sight of the passion that first drew you to medicine. This event offers a powerful opportunity to pause, reflect, and reconnect.

In this joint event with Richmond Hospital Medical Staff Association (RHMSA), you will learn:

- How to rekindle and ignite your spark sustainably and in a balanced way
- Practical, inspiring, and transformational ideas that are simple, doable, and profoundly impactful

Leave feeling re-energized, grounded, and equipped with meaningful tools to support your well-being and professional fulfillment.
